May 2024

A New Chapter Begins

Leroy D. Williams Memorial Library Opening This Summer in Reserve

The new Leroy D. Williams Memorial Library is nearing completion at 1480 Highway 44 in Reserve, next to the Historic St. John Theatre. Expected to open to the public in June, the new building marks a new chapter for St. John the Baptist Parish Library. More than a home for books, this new library will be a champion for the youth, a place to create, and a gathering place for all in the community. A grand opening celebration will encompass the theme “Building the Future, Preserving the Past.” Festivities will coincide with St. John the Baptist Parish Library’s 2024 Summer Reading Program. Look inside to learn more about our Library’s plans for the Summer.

Features of the new Reserve Library include a Makerspace filled with state-of-the-art sewing, printing, and crafting equipment; flexible meeting rooms; a podcasting room with an audio mixer; a one button studio for telehealth appointments; a gaming room with X-Box and PS5 systems; computer and Wi-Fi access; quiet reading and study spaces; and a library-run coffee shop. The upcoming addition of the neighboring 1885 House will expand the Library’s Louisiana history collection and add a cooking demonstration kitchen for small groups. Photos show current progress at the site, including exterior details and newly installed wall art inside the branch.

EARLY LITERACY IS CRUCIAL!

Early literacy activities including reading to your child can foster a rich vocabulary and reading comprehension skills critical to future academic success. By age 3, a child who is read to is exposed to up to 30 million more words than a child with barriers to early literacy. A strong foundation in literacy is associated with improved high school completion rates and higher salaries upon entering the workforce.

Storytime introduces the love of reading to early learners. This is a perfect time for young children and their parents or caretakers to interact in a comfortable setting. # CARLOS DIAZ

Are you looking for your next quick read? Carlos Diaz, our Reference Associate, is observing International Short Story Month with book talks about "Lot: Stories" by Bryan Washington (Friday, May 10th) and "The World Doesn't Require You: Stories" by Rion Amilcar Scott (Friday, May 24th). Watch the book talks on St. John the Baptist Parish Library's Facebook page and YouTube Channel!

"Lot: Stories" - In the city of Houston - a sprawling, diverse microcosm of America - the son of a black mother and a Latino father is coming of age.

"The World Doesn't Require You: Stories" - Established by the leaders of the country's only successful slave revolt in the mid-nineteenth century, Cross River still evokes the fierce rhythms of its founding. In lyrical prose and singular dialect, a saga beats forward that echoes the fables carried down for generations.

It became official in May 2013 as the first organized International Short Story Month. Exciting, moving, and unexpected, short stories make the perfect introduction to a new author's work, an excellent way for readers to get a top-up from their favorite authors between novels, and a perfect impulse purchase on a phone or e-reader. The suggested titles below are available at the Library or our Hoopla and Libby e-book databases.

St. John the Baptist Parish Library and Marathon Petroleum have partnered to bring STEM NOLA to each of our branches with exciting, hands-on experiments. Get a taste of the new Reserve Library's MakerSpace and put your sewing and circuitry skills to the test by making light-up Mickey Mouse ears.

All Summer long, the River Parishes Tourist Commission will spotlight local culture to help you plan your next staycation. Come see the fire truck and prepare for new adventures by making luggage tags and 3D paper suitcases.

Baby Yoda and Disney characters will be abundant at our branches during the final week of Summer Reading, and families will be invited to play musical bingo and watch an indie traveling wrestling match.

Regularly scheduled story times, computer classes, and language classes will continue throughout the summer.

Registration will be available online and in person beginning Saturday, June 1st.

Program dates and times will be listed on our online calendar, in our Summer newsletter, and on social media. Visit www.stjohnlib.com for more information.

Meet Your MakerSpace

KEVIN TRAVIS
Makerspace
Coordinator

Hello! I'm Kevin Travis, MakerSpace Coordinator for the Leroy D. Williams Memorial Library. When I tell people of my job title, their next question is, "What a MakerSpace?!" With a smile, I explain that a MakerSpace is an area and/or service that offers library patrons an opportunity to create materials using a variety of resources. In our MakerSpace, we have items such as the MakerBot 3D printers and Cricut smart cutting machines. The Sawgrass SG500 sublimation printer is for printing designs on shirts/bags, while the The HTVront heat press applies designs, and the auto tumbler heat press is used for cups. The Janome Skyline S5 and Sewist 721 sewing machines are for stitching and modifying fabric. We have the Vevor button makers in 1.5" and 3" sizes and an oversized HP printer for large-scale signs and posters. The Makey Makey circuit kits and Edison programmable bots can be used for STEAM education, and an Epilog Fusion Pro 24 laser cutter makes custom designs in wood and metals.

With all this state of the art equipment in the Reserve Branch Library, patrons will have access to continuous learning and training. A badging system will permit patrons to come in use equipment after completing a training. When the schedule permits, the MakerSpace will be open for patrons to work independently on small projects. The MakerSpace is not just a space that I am over; it is a space for all. The new Leroy D. Williams Library Branch in Reserve will be opening soon, so I hope to see you there!
